DESCRIPTION

At the entrance to the prestigious Cap d'Antibes, just steps from sandy beaches and Port Gallice, this Belle Époque residence, built in 1901, enjoys a prime location on a flat, landscaped plot of 2,410 m².

With approximately 395 m² of living space spread over three levels, the property offers generous, light-filled interiors with open views of the sea and surrounding gardens.

On the ground floor, a spacious entrance hall leads to an elegant double living room and dining area of 90 m², opening onto a terrace with unobstructed views over the Mediterranean. The separate kitchen is fully equipped, combining functionality with refined finishes.

The first floor features a superb principal suite of around 70 m² with a panoramic terrace, private bathroom, and double dressing room. Two additional en-suite bedrooms complete this level.

The garden level offers a second suite, an additional bedroom, and a summer lounge with kitchen — ideal for hosting guests in privacy and comfort.

The outdoor areas are designed for relaxation and entertaining, with over 200 m² of terraces, a heated swimming pool, summer bar overlooking the bay, mature Mediterranean landscaping, a closed garage, and ample on-site parking.

A residence of timeless character, offering refined living in one of the most sought-after locations on the French Riviera.
